Judges:

Susan Lightner (R-Judge)

The Young Sporthorse Show Series is designed to provide breeders, owners, trainers and riders of young sport horses an affordable show venue to introduce sporthorses of all disciplines to the show environment and “put on necessary mileage” with new and special classes suitable to the proper development of young horses. It is also intended to create a sales environment where numerous young horses are in a single location and their talents displayed in front of a buying audience.

Eligible Competitors: All horses and ponies, yearlings to five year olds (born 2005-2009), who are being prepared to compete in Jumpers, Dressage, Eventing or Hunters.

All horses must provide proof of their birth date (e.g., registration papers, PHR papers, Vet Certificate).

Prizes/Prize Money: The Champion of each division/age group will be awarded a cash prize of $200. The Reserve Champion of each division/age group will be awarded a cash prize of $100. To be eligible for Champion and Reserve Champion of a division, a horse must compete in the class on both days.

Total prize money to be awarded is $3,900.

Ribbons will be awarded to the first three placings in each class.

Showgrounds: The show will be held at Spy Coast Farm in Lexington, Kentucky. Spy Coast Farm is a premier sport horse facility boasting 300 acres directly adjacent to the Kentucky Horse Park.

Divisions/Classes: There are five divisions, each divided by age. Each division will include two classes, one held on Monday and one on Tuesday. To determine Division Champion and Reserve Champion for each age group, scores from each day will be totaled and then averaged. To be eligible for the Championship prize money, horses MUST compete in both classes.

The division fee is $50 or a single-class fee is $35.

There is a complete description of each division, including rules and complete judging criteria starting on page 10.

Health Requirements: All horses are required to have an up-to-date Coggins and health certificate upon entering Spy Coast Farm. NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE MADE.

Dogs: Since this is a private facility and there will be many young horses on the premises, we ask that you leave your dogs at home.

Show Attire: Riders are requested to wear appropriate show attire. Hard hats and boots are required. Coats will not be required.

Braiding: Horses are not required to be braided; however, it is strongly encouraged if you are using the event for sales purposes or to prepare marketing materials for your horse. A professional braider will be available (for dressage or hunter-style braids) for hire.

Professional Handlers: Due to liability issues, professional handlers will be required for the in-hand and jump chute divisions. We have arranged for two professional handlers to be present at the show and have negotiated a set rate for their services ($35 for the Suitability for Sport class and $15 for the Jump Chute class). If you wish to bring your own handler, the show office will require credentials that will need to be approved. Please contact us prior to show dates for approval.

Show Support: Professional photographer, videographer and braiders will be available to all competitors. Please indicate on your entry form if you will be interested in their services.

Sales Support: The show program will provide a list of all of the competitors, in the order of go for each class. Each horse listed will include ownership information, a 3-sire pedigree (as provided by owner) and the current price for the horse if it is for sale.

Add/Drop: Classes may be added during the show if space is available. There will be no additional fee.

A class must be dropped no less than 3 hours before the beginning of the class for a full refund of the class fees.

It is the intention of this Young Horse Show to provide our young horses a suitable environment to begin their careers without the pressures of the Show Circuit. With this in mind, we kindly request that owners, trainers and riders abide by a drug-free show for the young horses. The judges will be lenient with “young horse mistakes.” So, Let’s “just say No” and enjoy our horses’ first steps towards a competitive career!

Thank you!
Show Management

Suitability for Sport In-Hand

This class will combine an in-hand phase followed by a liberty phase. Upon entering the ring, the conformation of each horse will be assessed by the two judges independently. The handler then will present the horse on the triangle at both the walk and the trot. The conclusion will be a maximum 3-minute liberty phase where all three gaits will be assessed.

The horses will be scored on conformation (30%), quality of all three gaits (30%), overall athleticism (30%) and overall impression (10%).

Horse equipment provisions:

Horses 2 years and older will be required to compete in a bridle with a bit with removable reins. Yearlings must compete in a halter with an optional chain shank.

No boots or wraps are allowed.

Jump Chute

The jump chute will be comprised of three jumping elements: a cross rail to a small vertical to an ascending oxer (see diagram below). For two year olds, there will be just two elements: a cross rail to a vertical which will then be built up to an ascending oxer.

Each horse will be given six trips through the chute. The judges initially will set the chute at an inviting height so the horse can become accustomed to the chute and then will raise the jumps accordingly.

Heights: 3’6 height, max 3’6 spread (two-year old)
3’9 height, max 3’9’ spread (three-year old)
4’ - 4’3 height, max 4’ to 4’3 spread (Mature horse)

Each horse will be given a maximum of 3 consecutive refusals, at which time they will be excused from the class. They will receive a score based upon their performance up to the point of being excused.

If the judges feel the horse's welfare is at stake (e.g., lack of preparation, lack of ability, fear), the horse will be excused from the class.

The horses will receive equally weighted scores for scope, technique, carefulness and willingness at the conclusion of their jumping effort.

Horse equipment provisions:

Horses will be required to compete in a bridle with a bit and removable reins.

Boots are encouraged.

Suitability For Sport Under Saddle:

Open to horses of all disciplines, judges will assess the basic gaits of the horse under saddle. Horses will be paired by age and by gender and will perform in the ring together with the judge asking the riders to talk, trot, canter and lengthen the gaits.

What the Judge is Looking For:

The judge wants to see a horse that is relaxed and willing to do his job. With an age appropriate frame, the judge will look for a forward horse, balanced, relaxed with a softly connected way of going that best demonstrates his/her gaits.

Horses will receive a score for walk (25%), trot (25%), canter (25%) and overall impression (25%). Each horse will be assessed by a single judge. The scores will be based on the individual horse, not on a relative basis.

Horse equipment provisions:

- Riders may use a dressage, jumping or all-purpose saddle.
- Riders are encouraged to use a smooth snaffle or 3-piece bit. Bits that will not be allowed for this class are Pelhams, Kimberwickes, Elevator, Gags or Mikmars with shanks.
- Riders may not use martingales (standing or running), draw reins, side reins, chambons, de gogues, neck stretchers or any other head setting device in the class.
- Dressage whips or riding crops are permissible.
- No boots or wraps may be used on the legs during the class.

Style Jumping Under Saddle

The Style Class is designed similarly to European Young Horse classes which are intended to assess a horse's jumping talent under saddle, while at the same time building confidence and experience.

Horses will jump two back-to-back age-appropriate courses of approximately 8 jumps.

Heights: 2'6 - 3'0" height, max 3' - 3'3 spread (four-year old)
3'0 - 3'3 height, max 3'3 - 3'6 spread (five-year old)

The course will be designed by R-Judge Jos Sevriens. It will be similar to a hunter course in structure (basic in and out lines, no bending lines, no roll-backs), but comprised of colored (jumper) fences set with young-horse friendly, straightforward strides. Time is neither set nor judged.

Horses that refuse three times while on course will be excused from the class. They will receive a score based upon their performance up to the point of being excused.

The horse will be scored over each obstacle and then combined for a total score. The focus of the judging is on the horse's jumping "style" (e.g., scope, technique, carefulness and willingness). Horses should be ridden in a soft and balanced frame and with adequate pace that enables them to negotiate the jump in their best form. (This class is modeled after the "Bundeschampionat" Young Horse series in Germany).

Schooling Dressage

Horses will demonstrate their basic rideability, harmony with the rider and willingness to perform using a Training Level Dressage test. The training level tests were specifically selected because of their universal application to all four disciplines.

Horses are required to display all three gaits, basic changes of direction, circles and half-circles. In the test for 5 year olds, horses are asked to perform a stretchy circle at the trot. Free walk and stretchy circle mean that the horse is allowed to reach forward and down with his neck, lengthen his stride slightly and stretching his entire topline. They should also be able to change directions and bend at the trot--in the 5-year old test, a trot loop is required from the corner letter, through X, and back out to the next corner.

Tests may be read for riders.

What the Judge is Looking For:

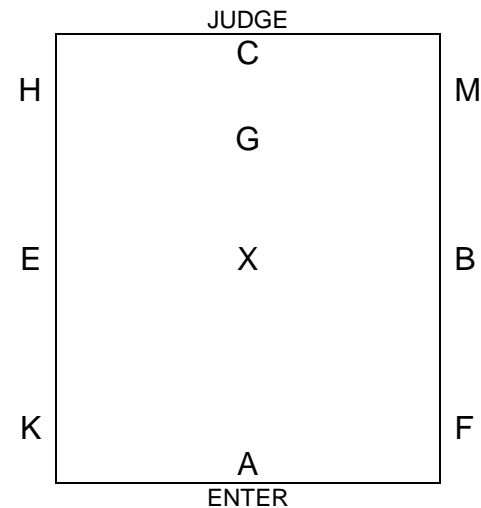

The judge wants to see a horse that is relaxed and willing to do his job. They look for balanced, smooth transitions and clear, rhythmic gaits. They also want to see circles that are balanced, round and the correct size, lines that are straight and immobile halts.

Each element of the test will be scored and collective marks at the end of the test are given for the horse's gaits, impulsion and submission. Since the focus of the class is the horse, the rider will not receive a score.

Horse equipment provisions:

- Riders may use a dressage, jumping or all-purpose saddle.
- Riders are encouraged to use a FEI-dressage legal bit for this class. The only bits that will not be allowed for this class are Pelhams, Kimberwickes, Elevator, Gags or Mikmars with shanks.
- Riders may not use martingales (standing or running), draw reins, side reins, chambons, de gogues, neck stretchers or any other head setting device in the class.
- Dressage whips or riding crops are permissible.
- No boots or wraps may be used on the legs during the class.
